

WINES BY 'THE GLASS at DISH

House Red/House White

GLASS HALF LITER
$5.75 $13.50

WHITES

GLASS

$10.00

Chardonnay

Four Vines "Naked," Santa Barbara Co. 2009

*This "naked" chard is "unoaked," meaning aged in stainless steel.
Clean, crisp flavors of apple & clove, w/hints of citrus on the finish.*

Calina, Chile 2008

Velvety smooth and buttery, w/light oak flavors and notes of green & red apples.

$8.50

King Fish, Central Coast 2008

Bright apple & pear notes with tart citrus flavors & a buttery finish.

$7.00

Pinot Grigio

Brancott, North Island New Zealand 2007

*Made of grapes of the Marlborough, Otago and Hawke's Bay regions.
Bright and juicy flavors that are soft and long-lasting on the palate.*

$7.75

Chenin Blanc

Kanu, South Africa 2007

South Africa produces great Chenin, and has been doing so since 1655.

$9.50

Sauvignon Blanc

Frenzy, Marlborough 2009

Marlborough is considered by many to be the premiere Sauv Blanc-producing region of the world. This one is brisk and refreshing, w/hints of melon & citrus.

$9.25

Riesling

Columbia Winery, Columbia Valley 2007

Fruitful and mildly sweet; great way to cool off a mouthful of gumbo.

$6.75

White Zinfandel

Montevina, Napa Valley 2008

Flavors of juicy peaches & watermelon, with a touch of sweetness.

$6.50

REDS

Cabernet Sauvignon

Windmill, Lodi 2008

*From six generations of growers, this Cab is full-bodied and balanced.
Flavors of dark chocolate & cherry along w/ a nice, long, smooth finish.*

$10.00

Little Boomey, Australia 2009

Generous black currant flavors with subtle oak and a soft finish.

$7.50

Merlot

Mad Housewife, St. Helena 2008

*Complex flavors of blackberries and plum with hints of vanilla;
great match to a variety of dishes.*

$7.75

Petite Sirah

Parducci, Mendocino 2007

Petite Sirah is the descendant of the very old French variety Peloursin, once grown in the famed Isere region. Full flavors of sweet, ripe fruit.

$9.25

Shiraz

Alice White, Australia 2008

Classic Australian Shiraz, with a deep berry flavor.

$7.00

Pinot Noir

Cline, Sonoma Coast 2007

*This extremely elegant Pinot shows us why the Cline name has become synonymous with fantastic wines since the family settled their land in the late 19th Century.
Supple strawberry & spearmint aromas, lush texture & moderate tannins.*

$12.50

Cono Sur, Valle Central, Chile 2010

"New World-style" pinot; full of bright cherry aromas, rich red berry flavors and a subtle spicy finish.

$7.75

Zinfandel

Zen of Zin, Old Vine Zinfandel, California 2008

Rich, dark berry and chocolate flavors.

$9.75

Ask your server for a taste of any wine.